

TESTIMONIALS

'Following a very interesting and productive job search period, I am very pleased to say I have secured full time employment..... Jon's long experience, astuteness, encouragement and ease of communication made this period far easier and more successful than it otherwise would have been.'

PT, Gloucestershire

'They were brilliant with me, I was at a dead end and didn't know what to do. I thought I had tried every avenue. Now I've got a much more positive outlook. Time spent with them was very worthwhile'

TS, Oxfordshire

'They provide a fantastic sounding board and were brilliant at asking the right questions. I would highly recommend working with them to anyone thinking about the next steps in their career'

SG, Gloucestershire

'As a career coach Jon cannily searches out where you need support and pushes you in the right direction without you even realising it. He helped me regain my confidence after finding myself in the job market for the first time in nearly a decade and within 2 months I had secured the job that I really wanted.'

NK, Gloucestershire

'Working with my consultant was pretty inspiring. He had the ability to dig deep and unearth the real me, untangle the mess and create the clarity to effect positive change in my career with ease and immediacy'

MN, Greater London

'Their Career Counselling service is the best kept secret in the Talent Management industry. I now have a much better handle on my career goals, my strengths and weaknesses and more importantly the confidence to make the required changes and move forward. Everyone who cares about their career should meet Ezek. I only wish I had met them 10 years earlier'

CM, Worcestershire

'Working with Jon has provided me with new ideas and avenues to explore in by job search. He helped to clarify the direction I am looking to take and simplified the search. He gave honest, open and direct feedback, which helped me to address the areas I need to quickly.'

CD, London

'An excellent thinker with a pragmatic and insightful view of the business world. This really helped in enabling me to see things differently and develop a practical plan to get my next role'

JM, Gloucestershire

'I needed help in planning the next phase of my career and came on the recommendation of a friend. While focussing on my needs their approach included a blend of sound advice based on years of experience and pragmatic assessment of what I needed to do to realise my potential'

OC, London

Jon Lawton is a very talented and disciplined professional career adviser. A straight talker who enables people to focus on their key attributes and the important issues to get results.

MB, Herefordshire